(Humming, intro) CDE, CDE,
CDEBA, GF#GF#B,

I... feel a wind,
A wind... of change,
Blowing from the east;
And... its song,
Cruel... and cold
Hit me like a beast...

(violin interlude) SOPHIE, PIANO

Suddenly I opened my eyes and saw

The wind, it had stopped, it was not a dream

Did you imagine a thing like this

Could tear the whole world apart at the seams

BEATS START

The sun has gone,	Natin
The clouds are grey,
Our life has gone	Asheerah
Into dismay;
The stench of death	Pranav
It drifts our way,
All happiness	Anaiya
Has gone away.

The world is locked, Vedang

We cannot play,

There's an ill wind Mira

Blowing today,

Wear your mask! Anshu

Don't breathe the air!

It's dangerous Anya

Though skies are clear

(Amolo recorder solo)

Suddenly there's hope, all around me

The sky is blue,

The grass outside is green, trees are
in bloom,

It's a new wind too;

Roads are full again, we're all
together,

We're back at school,

The bad days withdrew, and happy
vibes flew,

It was all so cool.

I... feel a wind,

A wind... of change,

Blowing from the east...
